NEWS BY THE AMERICAN MAIL.

We take the following telegraphic items of general news from our San Francisco exchanges received by the Pacific Mail S. S. Co.'s steamer City of Tokio, Captain Maury, which arrived here yesterday afternoon—

DUBLIN, September 14th.
It is announced that Parnell, Davitt, Dillon and Brennan have decided to hold a conference in autumn in order to inaugurate a national movement in which the various governments will be consolidated upon a platform of national self-government, abolition of landlordism, the promotion of home industries, the rights of laborers, and a paid representation in Parliament.

LONDON, September 14th.
Swinburne, the poet, contemplates a tour to the United States, where he will give a series of readings.
Edward R. Dewolski, stock and share broker, and very extensive outside speculator on the stock exchange, has fallen. He had accounts open in all descriptions of stocks including the Grand Trunk, having been speculating for a fall. His indebtedness to one firm of brokers amounts to £100,000.

DUBLIN, September 14th.
In consequence of Clifford Lloyd's subscription to the Limerick races having been accepted, a number of boycotted owners of racers have received letters stating that if they run horses there they will be killed.
One of the butresses of St. Patrick's Cathedral fell to-day, killing four women. They were completely decapitated.

LONDON, September 14th.
The Alexandria plates won by Sutter; Sea Horse second, Allain third. The Portland plate was won by Martine; Reputation second, Angwin third.
The Bank of England has increased the rate of discount from 4 to 5 per cent.

September 15th.
Sir James Alderson, Physician Extraordinary to the Queen, is dead.

The Doncaster stakes were won by Amalfi, Zep second, Quikline third. The Doncaster cup was won by Retreat, Our John second, Fortissimo third.

NEW YORK, September 16th.
The Telegram has the following special from Tel-el-Kebir: Egyptian negro troops crossed bayonets with the Highlanders and the Irish regiments on Wednesday. The accuracy with which the Highland brigade came into line after their seven mile march on a moonless night in the soft, sandy desert, guided only by stars, and stormed the intrenchments and redoubts last Wednesday, has never been surpassed in history. According to correspondents of the Daily Chronicle, Arabi was seen riding by the village of Belbeis from the disaster at Tel-el-Kebir, attended by only twenty horsemen. The fugitive leader as he dashed past waved his sword, and with blood on his battle-belt, he cried "Egypt is ruined." They, however, paid no heed to him.

Regarding the Egyptian loss in Wednesday's engagement, no computation approaching accuracy has yet been made, but including what has been accounted for by the cavalry, it cannot be short of 2,500 to 3,000. In several places the bodies of the Egyptians were lying in heaps of from thirty to fifty. They lay in dense rows where the Forty-second, getting on the flank, enveloped Arabi's lines, while they were holding the position against an attack in front. The dead extended for over a mile behind the position, as our pursuing troops fired after the mass of fugitives. Altogether the field of Tel-el-Kebir presents a terrible and ghastly sight. Fifty guns have fallen into the hands of the British. The Chief of the Commissariat of the prisoners states that rations were issued the day before the battle for 15,000 regular troops and 7,000 irregulars.

ALEXANDRIA, September 16th.
It is believed that Mallet, the British Consul-General, has telegraphed to General Wolsley, the names of seven persons answerable for the rebellion, and whose arrests are desirable.

LONDON, September 16th.
A correspondent in Egypt telegraphs that all the military posts in Cairo are occupied by the British troops. The city is perfectly safe. Abeyd Pasha was killed in battle. The Italian Naval Lieutenant, who it was supposed had joined Arabi Pasha, has been discovered in the hospital at Kafr-el-Dwar, suffering from the effects of ill usage.

The Egyptian gunners have a clean, well-led look. The perfect order in the camp is most striking. The arms were well kept. The rebel troops seemed depressed at to-day's news.

Arabi's officers declared our artillery caught them little or no loss.

CAIRO, September 18th.
The Household Cavalry will be the first to leave Egypt. The homeward movement begins shortly.

ZAGAZIG, September 19th.
The entire population of this part of the country have returned to their homes, and are working in the fields. Every house and hovel floats the white flag. The forbearance of the conquering army has produced a most wholesome effect.

CAIRO, September 19th.
A large deputation of Ulama have waited on General Wolsley and assured him that no attempt will be made to excite the religious feeling of the people. General Wolsley has again refused Arabi Pasha an interview.

LONDON, September 19th.
The Pail Mail Gazette recommends the establishment of a gendarmerie in Egypt, officered by Englishmen.

The Paris Journal des Debats gives similar advice.

The Daily News, commenting on the hostile tone of some Italian papers, says it has reason to believe, nevertheless, that Italy was among the earliest foreign powers to congratulate Great Britain on her success.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 19th.
El-Yavuzlu, a Turkish newspaper, advises the Khedive to confiscate the property of the rebels and devote the proceeds to indemnifying the sufferers from pillage and incendiarism.

LONDON, September 19th.
The Times says it is understood that the British Consul-General at Alexandria has been directed to inform the Khedive that no capital sentence passed on the Egyptian leaders must be carried out without the consent of Great Britain. Steps have been taken to obtain the services of a competent English barrister to defend Arabi Pasha and other leaders in the revolt.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 19th.
During the first half of the present year the receipts of the Government increased 19,500,000 roubles, and the expenditure decreased 23,500,000 roubles.

TRIESTE, September 19th.
The extraordinary enthusiasm of the reception of the Imperial family at the theatre is partly due to the impression that the arrest of Overdank averted a catastrophe recently. Some irredentists from Italy have also been arrested.

LONDON, September 19th.
Heavy floods are reported in Lombardy, Venice and the Tyrol. Vienna is submerged. No loss of life yet reported.

A telegram from Sir Henry Gore Booth, dated at Hammerfest, September 16th, states that his vessel, The Kara, met with ice August 12th, and was subsequently driven ashore on Fern Island. She floated September 2nd, uninjured, and sailed southward.

BERLIN, September 19th.
Political partisans in Prussia are actively promoting the electoral campaign. The papers to-day publish addresses to the electors.

An explosion of fire damp in a mine near Dortmund killed twenty persons.

ROME, September 19th.
The damage by the floods in Italy and Austria is 2,000,000 florins.

DUBLIN, September 19th.
In connection with the case of Patrick Walsh, whose execution for the murder of Martin Lyden has been fixed for Friday next, a legal difficulty has arisen, it being alleged that Judge Lawson, in passing the sentence against Walsh, failed to use the phraseology prescribed by law.

CAIRO, September 20th.
Arabi's house has been looted, chiefly by the servants of Sultan Pasha. Grenadiers are guarding Arabi Pasha and Toulou Pasha.

All the Egyptians wounded in the battle of Tel-el-Kebir have been brought here. General Wood's brigade is coming.

Three hundred rebel officers are held as prisoners at Ramleh, in consequence of Christians at Damahour being in danger, a regiment will be sent there by train.

LONDON, September 20th.
Henry George, at a largely attended meeting of churchmen in London, last night, explained his views on the land nationalization question. He declared that, as a matter of abstract justice, no compensation should be awarded to the present landowners. If the State makes land common property by taking the whole rental value in taxation for public purposes, very little hardship will be done. If those urging nationalization should declare that to their intention, as soon as they obtained power the value of land would decline. Practically, the whole process simply amounted to carrying the principle of free trade to its logical conclusion. He believed that on this basis the free trade battle in America would be fought and won.

A telegram is published here stating that in consequence of some disorders in the Arab quarter of Cairo, General Wolsley has threatened, in the event of their renewal, to open fire from the Citadel.

VIENNA, September 20th.
Overdank, arrested while manufacturing bombs, has declared that the explosives were intended as a greeting of the youth of Italy to the Austrian Imperialists. An accomplice of Overdank has been arrested at Comen.

LONDON, September 20th.
A dispatch from Cattaro says: "News has been received from Cetinje that the defensive and offensive alliance has been concluded between Russia and Montenegro."

A Catholic clergyman of some rank has been fined 200 marks for libelling Prince Bismarck in an article on the Chancellor's attitude toward the "Kulturkampf." [If this is understood the whole circle of education is in a ferment.]

MOSCOW, September 20th.
The Imperial Court has been established in the Kremlin. An order has been promulgated, stating that in consequence of the arrival of the Emperor and Empress, and of the Imperial procession to be made to the Cathedral, the following persons are requested to attend at the Kremlin this afternoon: The principal army and navy officers, all persons entitled to present themselves at Court, the nobility, the municipal authorities of Moscow and of other cities, the principal members of the Russian and foreign mercantile community and of the trading guilds.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 20th.
The Emperor and Empress and Grand Dukes Alexis, Sergius and Paul started for Moscow last night.

The order for stringent police control in St. Petersburg and Moscow has been prolonged one year.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 20th.
The Car, started for Moscow yesterday, most probably for coronation, all private telegraphic service and railway traffic in the direction of Moscow will be stopped until his arrival, and 30,000 troops will be stationed along the line as far as Moscow. Absolute secrecy is maintained in regard to the actual date of the coronation.

MOSCOW, September 20th.
The Car and Carriage arrived yesterday and will receive deputations from the estate of the Empire at Kremlin Palace in the afternoon.

VIENNA, September 20th.
Three men were arrested at Venice on suspicion of being connected with those who threw bombs into the ranks of the Society of Veterans at Trieste, August 2nd, while the Society was marching to salute the Emperor's brother. The prisoners were found to have communicated with Overdank, near Ronchi. They belong to a secret society, which is spreading from Rome and Naples to Trieste. Overdank's father is an esteemed naval officer. The Italian Government is anxious to assist in apprehending persons connected with the plot, and sent agents to Trieste for that purpose.

The British and American Rifle teams dined at Coney Island on Monday night at the invitation of the officers of the Fourteenth Regiment. One hundred and seventy persons were present at the dinner, including the British Consul, Henry Ward Beecher and others. Fifteen hundred spectators were present during the afternoon listening to the concert.

DUBLIN, September 20th.
Owing to the release of a number of prisoners, consequent upon the immediate expiration of the Coercion Act, the authorities are somewhat certain persons suspected of informing, for fear that they might be murdered if they remained.

HAVANA, September 20th.
Spanish gold advanced to 107 to day, and closed between 102 and 103. The rise and fluctuations in gold have almost caused a general panic. The provision market is paralyzed, as buyers and sellers disagreed as to whether the sales should be closed in gold or paper. Certain parties want to compel provision merchants to resume sales again in paper. The provision merchants held a meeting on Friday.

DRESDEN, September 20th.
Emperor William has written a letter to the King of Saxony in regard to the recent manoeuvres of the Saxon Army Corps, in which he says it affords him sincere satisfaction to again assure himself how entirely the King's views coincide with his own respecting the immense importance of keeping the troops in a state of readiness for war.

MOSCOW, September 20th.
The Emperor and Empress proceeded from the railroad station direct to the chapel of the Georgian Virgin, deeply impressed with the manifestation of loyalty. From the chapel their Majesties went to the Palace in the Kremlin, where the burgomaster presented an address of homage. Their Majesties then visited the cathedral, on the way to which they were immensely cheered. Afterward they drove to the Petrovsky Palace. The crowd in the Kremlin was so dense that the horses attached to the Imperial carriage could only proceed at a walk.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 19th.
During the first half of the present year the receipts of the Government increased 19,500,000 roubles, and the expenditure decreased 23,500,000 roubles.

TRIESTE, September 19th.
The extraordinary enthusiasm of the reception of the Imperial family at the theatre is partly due to the impression that the arrest of Overdank averted a catastrophe recently. Some irredentists from Italy have also been arrested.

LONDON, September 19th.
